

Canada's National Report to the ICCC 2019-2020

The University of Victoria Faculty of Law hosted the 9th annual Canadian Client Consultation Competition on March 14, 2020.

Our competition continues to grow as we had twelve teams registered to compete this year. Unfortunately, health and safety concerns related to the Covid-19 outbreak made travelling to the competition impossible for many competitors and coaches. In the end, six teams made their way to Victoria and competed in a one-day competition.

Despite the unique challenges the competitors faced this year, all teams performed admirably well. Two teams from the University of Victoria and one from the University of Alberta advanced to the final round.

Representing the University of Victoria, the team of Nina Dauvergne and Nicholas Picard, coached by Steve Perks, placed first in the Canadian Competition. Congratulations to the University of Victoria team on behalf of the Committee and this year's participants!

These year's Louis M. Brown and Forrest S. Mosten International Client Consultation Competition, which was scheduled to take place in Florida, has been cancelled due to the Covid-19 outbreak.

2020-2021 Canadian Client Consultation Competition

We are excited to announce that the University of Osgoode will host the Canadian Client Consultation Competition next year. We look forward to seeing everyone there!
