

Canada's National Report to the ICCC 2021-2022

The University Windsor Faculty of Law virtually hosted the annual Canadian Client Consultation Competition on March 5-6, 2022. Eleven teams from Canadian law schools attended the Canadian Competition.

It was a very strong year, with judges praising the quality of advice given, as well as the rapport teams established with their clients. The three teams that advanced to the finals were one team from the University of Windsor, one from Ryerson University and one from the University of Alberta.

The team of Jessica Gill and Emilio Filomeno from the University of Alberta, coached by Danielle Mousseau and Farrel Shadlyn, placed first in the Canadian Competition. The University of Alberta will represent Canada this year at the Louis M. Brown and Forrest S. Mosten International Client Consultation Competition hosted (virtually) by the Hillary Rodham Clinton School of Law in Swansea, Wales, United Kingdom. Congratulations to the University of Alberta!

2022-2023 Canadian Client Consultation Competition

Unfortunately we do not yet have a host for the Canadian Client Consultation Competition next year. We are actively searching.

National Report prepared by the Canadian Client Consultation Committee

Website: www.clientconsultationcomp.ca

Email: clientconsultationcomp@gmail.com